ASSEMBLYMAN BYRNE'S . THUNDER."

Assembly Committee on Railroads vesterday afternoon. Mr. SULZER appeared as its uran. Assemblyman Walten G. Byene, forward a resolution of thanks. n member, of that Committee, violently obstructed the measure. Earlier in the session Mr. BYRNE presented a bill ordering all tunnels of 200 feet or over in this State to be lighted and ventilated. It was one of a class of bills that are introduced annually, but which never pass. Yesterday Mr. BYRNE asserted that THE thunder" in supporting Mr. Sulzen's bill. National success.

Mr. BYRNE could not have considered what he said, or he is very short-sighted. Why should be consider the measure his? Is he in the Assembly for his own ends or for the people's? That a legislator should desire credit for any wise measures that he may publicly claim any measure as his personal so unfairly treated? property is astonishing.

the Fourth Avenue Tunnel. He was sent to and asked to amend it, being distinctly told that if he would do so and really desired to work this reform that THE EVENING WORLD Would heartily support and co-operate with him. He partially agreed to this, but ignored the appointment at which the matter was to have been discussed. THE EVENING WORLD did not want credit, but it did want the Fourth Avenue Tunnel to be made safe. So Mr. SULZER introduced his bill.

Mr. BYHNE is advised to go slowly. If he has any cogent objections to the Fourth Avenue Tunnel being rendered safe let him state them and oppose Mr. SULZER's bill on these grounds. But he must oppose it on these grounds only. Every legislator should act on his honest convictions. The fight to ventilate and the Englishmen's. light the Fourth Avenue Tunnel will be carried into the enemy's camp.

BAD BANKING.

Examiner Herburn's investigation into the affairs of the Washington National Bank, shows a condition of things which may call out the services of the District-Attorney. He says "that it was run with utter disregard for the most ordinary principles of banking business," that " inadequate security was accepted for loans to parties of notorious impecuniosity," and that this was not even known to the Board of Directors or the bank cashier. The fact that the bank was a National organization gare confidence to its depositors, who are entitled to redress.

The editor of an Italian newspaper in this city has received a threatening letter, signed Mafia, and is greatly disturbed. Several years ago, when a man was said to have been murdered by the Maila in this city, a great howl was raised by the police. THE EVENING WORLD made a thorough investigation and found that if there were any Mafia Society in New York it was an exceptionally quiet institution. for nothing could be learned about it, and all the evidence went to show that it was a thing merely of name.

The Executive Committee of the Grant Monument Association has decided to break ground next month. The slowness in collecting funds for the Grant Monument is most painful. All the Treasurer now has is $146,000, and it will take at least $500,000 for the work. The jealousy that has prevented other cities from contributing to this national monument, just because it is to be erected here is petty.
